Mary Frances Clarke Residence Hall

dedication

To Mother Mary Mary Frances Clarke, and to her valiant companions, Margaret Mann, Catherine Byrne, Eliza Kelly, and Rose O'Toole.

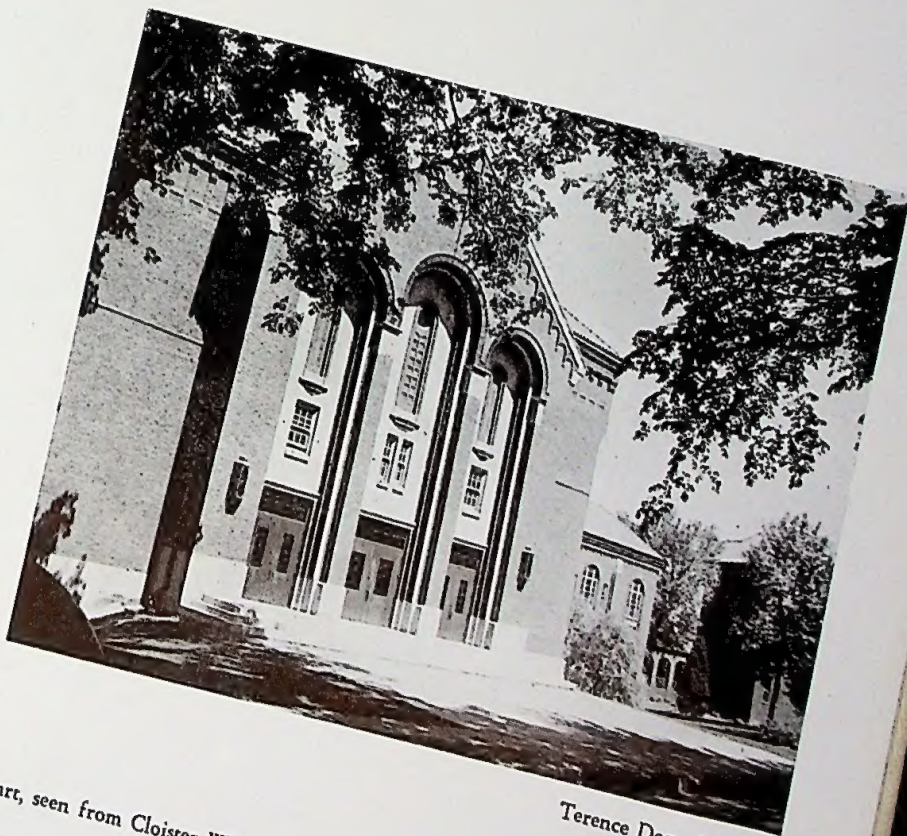

Women of prayer and gentle greatness
In that wind-chiseled year of crossing
When black waves swept steep
Against their faith-rock,
Saw the sun Midwest on light-fire fields
Of grain and straight green corn
Bring bread, spirit, and life
Where brave men went forth to find it.
On this plain above the Mississippi,
Pine wooded place,
They sought in the earth-long landscapes of their minds
A cynosure
Still high to street and steeple.
Our spires,
Spanning innerplace and outer space
Are symbols of their work-wound years
And patient artistry,
Routed in the time-rung hallways of the Angelus,
Where kindness lives
And women remember to tend their amber lamps
Against the darkness.

student leadership council

"Under the clock" is the official spot for casting ballots in all-college elections. Above Camille Jacques, seated, officiates as Patricia Donohue, Joann Grewell and Joy Conlon cast their votes for SLC president.

A significant indication of the progress of the S.L.C. during recent years was the adoption of the honor system as the basis of student government. By its vote to accept the honor code, the student body recognized the importance of personal integrity and mutual trust in achieving the common goals of faculty and students. Each student declares her loyalty to the S.L.C. and to the faculty by signing an honor pledge card.

The Class of 1955 will be the charter class to live under the Clarke Honor System. Right, Helen Joslin, SLC president, accepts signed honor pledges from Sheila Bitter and Mary Ann Schroeder.

SLC officers: Helen Joslin, president; Margaret Kretschmer, vice-president; Peggy Fox, secretary; Mary Jeanne Rhomberg, treasurer.

The S.A.F. formulates the policies of the S.L.C., appoints committees for S.L.C. functions, approves expenditures of S.L.C. funds, selects delegates for conventions, plans and co-ordinates the College Calendar, and acts as a clearing house for campus business.

tuckpointers

To welcome, advise and encourage the freshmen both before and throughout that first year of collegiate life, is the work of Tuckpointers. The members of this organization are carefully selected and trained to "cement relationships" between the old and the new.

christmas at clarke

Unforgettable days for every student starts in mid-December, including tree-decorating, caroling, and the traditional formal Christmas dinner. The most impressive ceremonies are the Christmas Cantata and Candlelighting.

The senior class plants twin trees which they called Homophrosynai to represent the concord and unity of the class of 1952.

class of 1952

Elizabeth Ann Bartels

Dubuque, Iowa

English, Library Science

Clarke's own Katherine Mansfield, Liz served as co-editor of the Labarum this year. Winner of numerous literary prizes, she received national recognition when she placed second in the essay division of the Atlantic Monthly contest. Even with all her writing Liz is always for partying of any kind. Next year she'll keep herself busy in the library at Marquette University.

Dubuque Senior High School. Labarum co-editor 4, assistant editor 3, junior editor 2; Press Club 1-4; treasurer 3; Tuckpointer 2, 3; CCP 1; IFTA 3, 4; Mary Blake Finan Literary Awards 3, 4.

Marion Elizabeth Bartels

Hubbard, Nebraska

Sociology, Elementary Education

This husky-voiced school marm is certain to impress her elementary pupils in Sioux City next fall with her tales of life in Nebraska. Clarkites will always remember Marion as a displaced drama student who gave her Oscar-winning performance as "Elmer" in the sophomore Valentine skit. As queen of the Senior Prom we're sure she was the loveliest one ever.

Hubbard High School. Social Science Club 3, 4; Art Club 1, 2; IFTA 3, 4; Radio Club 1-4; CCP 1-4; Sodality 1-4; WAA 1-4; Spires 1; Cheerleader 1-4; Senior prom queen.

Mary Therese Bautsch

Galena, Illinois

Biology, Chemistry

"Bautschie's" infectious smile is her trademark. Her athletic prowess was the secret behind her successful fan-waving performance in the Passion Play sponsored by the Dubuque's American Legion Post. Driving has succeeded baseball as her favorite sport since she received her powder blue convertible as a graduation gift. Mary will take her lab technician internship at Jackson Memorial Hospital in Miami.

Galena High School. WAA 1-4, vice-president 4; Athletic Captain 3, 4; Sodality 1-4; Biology Forum 3, 4; Social Science Club 1-4; Cecilian Circle 4; Basketball 1-4, Champion team 1, 2, All-Star team 3, 4, captain 3; WAA Awards 2, 3, 4.

Barbara Jean Benbow

Des Moines, Iowa

Art, French

Always the "model" student, Barb has starred in Clarke fashion shows since her sophomore year. Most at home with palette and brush, she has lent her artistic talent to many projects, from painting portraits to decorating the union. A Clarke enthusiast, Barb has done her part this year on the newly established public relations board.

St. Joseph Academy. Art Club 1-4, secretary 3; Public Relations Board 4; WAA 1-3; Sodality 1-4; Cheerleader 3, 4; Art editor of Labarum 3; Dean's list, 5 times.

Patricia Claire Best

Peoria, Illinois

Economics, Sociology

Pat is always best whether she's working for the Social Science Club or doing the lighting effects for a CCP production. As manager of the Sodality Soap Shop, "Bessie" put her economics to work and kept the books in the black. This coming year she'll be using her econ major as vice-president of Best Built Homes, Inc.

Academy of Our Lady. Social Science Club 2-4, secretary 3; Floor president 4; CCP 1-3; WAA 2-4; Tuckpointer 4; Water Ballet 4; Home Economics Club 1; Sodality 1-4; Dean's list, once.

Jean Marie Boerschinger

Chicago, Illinois

Economics, Spanish

Jean is one engaged girl who won't have to worry about balancing the budget. An econ major, her accounting ability pulled the class through junior year when she served as treasurer. An excellent swimmer, Jean was one-half of the Leonard-Boerschinger duet which was always an outstanding performance in the water ballet.

St. Gregory High School. Social Science Club 1-4, Economics representative 4; IFTA 4; Sodality 1-4; WAA 1-4; Tuckpointer 4; Class treasurer 3; Water Ballet 1-4; Dean's list, twice.

Sheila Therese Branchaud

Cavalier, North Dakota
Foods and Nutrition, Science

Dark hair and dark eyes make Sheila the envy of many of her fair-haired classmates. Bridge is her favorite sport and Sheila always finds time for just one more game. A home ec major, Sheila brought renown to her department when she had an article on Clarke's Radio Kitchen published in the Home Economics Journal. She will intern in dietetics at Henry Ford Hospital, Detroit.

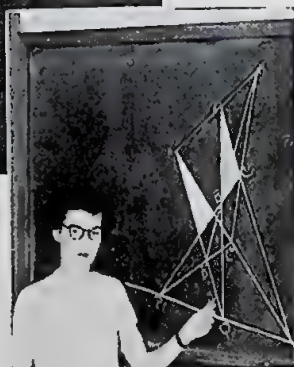

Cavalier High School. Home Economics Club 1-4, vice-president 3, treasurer 4; WAA 1; CCP 1-4; Sodality 1-4; Water Ballet 1; Spires 2, 3; Glee Club 1.

Mary Jean Bussan

Apco, Ohio Mathematics, Chemistry

Clarke's own Isaac Newton, Mary Jean amazes all with her own form of abstract art, otherwise known as projective geometry. In spite of her many activities she still holds the distinction of reading at least one book a week. All her friends declare she's an undiscovered Sonja Henie, but Mary Jean modestly declines with "they're exaggerating." It's hard to say whether Apco, Ohio, or Cuba City, Wisconsin, or the Spires Office, Dubuque, is home to her, but as managing editor she's inclined to vote for the yearbook headquarters.

Cuba City High School. Managing editor of Spires 4; WAA 1; Volleyball 4; Cecilian Circle 1, 2.

Odra Mae Carney

Dubuque, Iowa

Art, Social Science

Odra is a jump ahead of her classmates when it comes to careers, for she has been doing commercial art work for Dubuque's largest department store for the past two years. A full page ad of charity ball formals which recently appeared in the city newspaper proved Odra's ability in the advertising field. On the home front Odra designed the colorful three dimensional senior prom bids and has been putting all her talents to work as editor of the Spires.

St. Joseph Academy. Editor-in-chief of Spires 4, art editor 3; Art Club 1, 3, 4; Water Ballet 2; Sodality 1, 2; WAA 1, 2; Dorothy Newburgh Art Award 3.

Margaret Ann Casey

Casper, Wyoming

Foods and Nutrition, Science

Clarkites will remember Marg as the statuesque Alma Mater in the torch-passing ceremony in 1951. This Irish lass came all the way from Casper, Wyoming, to major in Foods and Nutrition. Although convinced Clarke is grand, Marg still thinks there'll never be any place like Wonderful Wyoming. To show that she's taking steps in the right direction, Margaret will intern in dietetics in Colorado.

Matrona County High School, Casper Junior College 1, 2. Home Economics Club 3, 4; Alma Mater 3; Social Science Club 4; Sodality 3, 4; Volleyball 4; Basketball 3, 4.

Mary Ann Cash

Rockford, Illinois

English, Spanish

Room 333 really should have been known as Mademoiselle Cash's salon since Mary Ann was constantly haunted by short hair enthusiasts begging her to wield the scissors to their tresses. An active member of the CCP, Mary Ann played in several productions. She still found time, however, for her beloved español and afternoons at Diamond's.

Bishop Muldoon High School. Press Club 2-4; Courier 2-4; Labarum 4; Spires 4; Class historian 1; Sodality 1-4; CCP 1-4; WAA 1-4; IFTA 4.

Harriet Marie Classen

Cicero, Illinois

Biology, Chemistry

Terri hid her athletic talent until her senior year when she starred on both the basketball and volleyball teams. A semester of comparative anatomy shook Terri's fondness for Angora cats. She plans to continue her career in biology as a lab technician intern at Mount Sinai Hospital in Chicago.

Immaculate Conception Academy, Davenport. Biology Forum 2-4; Tuckpointer 2; WAA 1-4; Sodality 1-4; Volleyball 1-4, Champion team 3; Basketball 3, 4; Prom queen attendant 4.

Catherine Virginia Culhane

Cum Laude

Chicago, Illinois Foods and Nutrition, Science

Katie plans on putting her home economics knowledge to good use, and in a hurry. June 14 is the big day for the Culhane family when both Katie and her sister Mary will change their names in a double wedding ceremony. Known by her classmates as "Miss Information Please," Katie showed she really had the know-how by her wonderful work as chairman of both the newly established Public Relations Board and the Tuckpointers.

The Immaculata High School. Public Relations Board 4, chairman 4; Tuckpointer 2-4, chairman 4; Home Economics Club 1-4; Class president 3; Class secretary 2; Press Club 2-4; Home Economics Club 1-4; Sodality 1-4; IFTA 4; Spires 2, 4; Social Science Club 4; Dean's list, 13 times; Kappa Gamma Pi Honor Society.

Ann Marie Danisch

Chicago, Illinois Art, Elementary Education

Ever since they met at Maryhall in freshman year Annie and Rosie have been inseparables—Clarke's own Bobbsey twins. When Ann started teaching arithmetic at Jackson School she began haunting senior math majors who swear that they "never had problems like that!" She plans on teaching next year but all her classmates wonder if they'll be able to distinguish tiny Ann from her young pupils.

The Immaculata High School. Art Club 1-4, president 4; Sodality 1-4; IFTA 3, 4; Labarum 3.

Elizabeth Jeanne Flad

Madison, Wisconsin
Interior Decoration, English

Here is a girl who is really sure of a Ford in her future. A member of the Diamond Circle Jeanne plans a December wedding, provided army orders don't interfere. This year Jeanne achieved fame by being awarded first prize in the interior decorating contest held by a local department store. Until wedding bells ring Jeanne hopes to combine her talent with that of her father's in his architect firm.

Edgewood Academy. Art Club 1-4, vice-president 4; Press Club 2-4; Courier 2-4; Sodality 1-4; WAA 1-4.

Rosemary Kathleen Flynn

Council Bluffs, Iowa
Music Education, Education

A typical Irish girl with her dark eyes and dark hair, Rosemary has been a loyal supporter of all activities since freshman year. No one was surprised at Honors Convocation when Rosemary was named the faculty's choice for the Mary Agnes O'Connor Award. An active member of the Glee Club, Schola, and Cecilian Circle, Rosemary has been kept busy this past year serving as president of both the Glee Club and Cecilian Circle.

St. Francis Academy. Cecilian Circle 1-2, president 4, vice-president 3, librarian 1; Glee Club 1-4, president 4, vice-president 3; Schola 1-4; IFTA 4; Orchestra 1-4, orchestra award 4; Tuckpointer 2-4; Spires 2; Sodality 1-4; WAA 3, 4; Prom queen attendant 4; Mary Agnes O'Connor Award 4.

Margaret Therese Fox

Chicago, Illinois Foods and Nutrition, Science

After weeks of intense study the seniors really enjoyed the weekend celebration of comp-passing at Therese's summer home. Even the cold weather couldn't chill their gay spirits, as rolls of Kodak film attest. Prefect of the Sodality, Therese was in a great way responsible for the Sodality's successful year. After four years of riding seminary buses she was quite delighted with her graduation gift, a shiny new car.

Loretto Academy. Prefect of Sodality 4, vice-prefect 3, secretary 2; Home Economics Club 1-4; WAA 1-4; SLC Congress delegate 1.

Ann Mulroy Gilmore

Chicago, Illinois

Biology, Chemistry

Vivacious Annie is always "all go" in school work or play. A member of the famous "Howell-Jolly-Bodies" trio, Ann helped to make life interesting in the biology lab. She shouts "beware" to her classmates who have summer homes, as she plans to travel around this summer before starting her internship in medical technology at St. Francis Hospital in Evanston.

Aquinas Dominican High School. Senior class treasurer; Biology Forum 2-4, secretary-treasurer 3; Tuckpointer 3, 4; Sodality 1-4; WAA 3, 4; Cheerleader 2-4; Social Science Club 4; Glee Club 1, 2; Press Club 1; Spires 3; Water Ballet 2-4; Dean's list, once.

Jane Kathryn Greteman

Dubuque, Iowa

Chemistry, Biology

"The resident student with city student privileges" was the title given to Gret early in her college career. Clarke's feminine version of Caruso, Jane has entertained her friends at picnics, weekend parties and school socials. Gret is a veteran on the Spires staff and divides her time between the publication office and the chemistry lab.

Academy of the Visitation. Vice-president of class 4; Class treasurer 1; Associate editor of the Spires 4, business manager 3, advertising manager 2; Sodality 1-4, secretary 3, treasurer 2; WAA 1-4; Volleyball 1-4, Champion team 3; Basketball 1-4, champion team 1, 2; Water Ballet 1-4; Golf champion 4; Tuckpointer 2-4; Press Club 4; SLC Congress delegate 3; WAA Awards 3, 4.

Bonnie Lee Haberer

Boone, Iowa Sociology, Elementary Education

If the Labarum and the Courier are out of the red this year it will be due to Bonnie who served as the dependable business manager of the two publications. A great horseback-riding enthusiast, Bonnie will miss her two horses next year when she leaves Boone to teach in Fonda. Her children are certain to be kept alert by her teaching—which will be done with gestures.

Sacred Heart High School. Social Science Club 1-4, president 4; Press Club 1-4; Courier 3, 4, business manager 4; Labarum business manager 4; WAA 1-4, treasurer 3; Volleyball 1-4, Champion team 3; Basketball 1-4, Champion team 1, 2, All-Star team 3, 4; Ping-pong 3, 4; Sodality 1-4; IFTA 3, 4; WAA Awards 1, 3, 4.

Charlene Vorwald Hawks

Maxima Cum Laude

San Antonio, Texas

Latin, English

Now a displaced Iowan, we are sure Char will impress the residents of the Lone Star state as much as she impressed Clarkites. Even with all her activities Charlene was never too busy to lend a helping hand with every project. A prize-winning short story writer, she was Labarum editor in her junior year. Char holds the major distinction of being the first bride of the class of '52.

Academy of the Visitation. Class president 2; Latin Club 2, 3, president 3; Editor-in-chief of Labarum 3, staff 1-3; Press Club 1-3; WAA 1, 2; Cecilian Circle 1; Social Science Club 2, 3; IFTA 3; Delegate to SLC Congress 3; Mary Blake Finan Literary Award 2, 3; Dean's list, 12 times.

Camille Marie Jacques

Cum Laude

Chicago, Illinois

History, French, English

Efficiency plus characterizes Camille. Traveling around the Iowa NFCCS Region, for which she served as veep in senior year, took much of her time but she still managed to handle a heavy class schedule. Camille's school days aren't quite over as she plans to add an M.A. to her newly acquired B.A. at Marquette University where she has been awarded a scholarship.

Aquinas Dominican High School. Vice-president of Iowa NFCCS Region 4, junior delegate 3; SLC representative 2; Parliamentarian 4; Social Science Club 4; Sodality 1-4; IFTA 3, 4; Press Club 3, 4; Tuckpointer 2-4; Labarum 4; Volleyball 2-4; Water Ballet 1-4; Delegate to SLC Congress 1, 3; Dean's list, 9 times; Kappa Gamma Pi and Delta Epsilon Sigma Honor Societies.

Mary Irene Jewel

Dubuque, Iowa Foods and Nutrition, Science

A quiz master's delight, Mary is a veritable encyclopedia of interesting and obscure information on anybody and anything, classic, medieval and modern. She gives her gems of wit and wisdom that dissertation aura with Latin footnotes. We're willing to wager that Mary will be the most interesting dietitian at Chicago University's hospital next year.

Joan Pearle Keating

Davenport, Iowa

History, English

Joan will never convince her classmates that she wasn't overly eager when she returned a day early from her Christmas vacation. She claims she forgot that extra free day. An early poodle cut enthusiast, Joan was one of its pioneers at Clarke. This fall she plans on teaching her favorite subject, history.

Immaculate Conception Academy. Social Science Club 2-4; WAA 1-4; CCP 2-4; Sodality 1-4.

Patricia Joan Keenan

Rockford, Illinois

Sociology, Elementary Education

St. Patrick's Day at Clarke will never be the same without Pinky's Irish jig. After rooming four years with chem major Mary Fran, Pinky could almost claim a double major, chemistry and sociology. A Clarkite who loved student teaching, she is looking forward to being on the other side of the desk this fall.

Margaret Bennett Kretschmer

Dubuque, Iowa

History, English, Spanish

The only time "Kretsch" sits still is in class. At other times she's working for the SLC, preparing "Kretsch's Komments," a weekly radio program, practice teaching, or computing her monthly budget. No matter how busy she appears to be, however, Marg has time for comic comments on the contemporary political or social situations. One of the last seniors to announce her engagement she will be the first of the June brides.

Kathryn Jane Leonard

Cum Laude

Dubuque, Iowa

Joan Mary Lonergan

Dubuque, Iowa

English, Library Science

Joan does more and says less about it than any two people at Clarke. Her work as Labarum co-editor was outstanding, with even the Atlantic Monthly recognizing the high quality of her essays. An E. E. Cummings fan, Joan likes nothing better than to "translate" his poetry for a skeptical student. This summer she will study for her Master's degree in library science on a fellowship at the Catholic University of America in Washington, D. C.

Immaculate Conception Academy. Co-editor of Labarum 4, associate editor 3, staff 2; Press Club 2-4, treasurer 4; IFTA 3, 4; Courier 2; Dean's list, 3 times.

Elizabeth Ann Loosbrock

Dubuque, Iowa

History, Elementary Education

The bane of Liz's existence were 8:20 classes with which she was blessed daily for four years. Liz majored in history but found expression for her dramatic talent in several Loras productions. Another one of our June brides, Liz chose the 28th as the date. After that she'll make Davenport her home town.

Patricia Ann McInerney

Dubuque, Iowa

Piano, Education

It's difficult to say whether "Pete" is more famous for her giggle or for her driving, both of which are "out of this world." Everybody will remember her rendition of "Rhapsody in Blue" in her senior recital. Because of her sleek black hair Patricia has the distinction of having the back of her head in more pictures than any other student. Receiving her degree in music education, Pete plans on teaching "do-re-me" as well as the three r's next year.

Bobbie Lue Meigh

Hiland, Wyoming

English, Drama

Bobbie Lue came to Clarke with a ten gallon hat and a long line of tales of life on the Meigh ranch. She saved the hat for horseback riding but she told the stories any time she could find a listener. In her junior year she made story telling a profitable enterprise when some of her Labarum articles were published. Bobbie joined the Diamond Circle at Easter time and is looking forward to an early wedding.

Rosalyn Regina Muehl

Cum Laude

Dubuque, Iowa

Sociology, Economics

What Clarkite will not remember Rosie as the persevering person stalking recalcitrant swimmers with make-up slips. Swimming instructor and able director of the annual water ballet, Rosie still found time for a double major and a high place on the Dean's list. Now she is looking forward to getting a Master's degree in social service on a fellowship at St. Louis University.

Dubuque Senior High School. Social Science Club 1-4; WAA 1-4; Water Ballet director 1-4; Dean's list, 4 times.

Theresa Ann Nederhiser

Cascade, Iowa

Biology, Chemistry

In freshman year, when she was such a zealous worker in her algebra class, Theresa became known as "Algy." Although she has never taken another math course (and never will, she says), the name has stayed with her. Having received a plane as a graduation gift Algy plans on commuting to the homes of all her classmates when she goes down to Miami, Florida, to take her internship in laboratory technology at Jackson Memorial Hospital.

St. Mary's High School. Biology Forum 2-4; WAA 1, 3, 4; Social Science Club 4.

Rita Therese Nessinger

Chicago, Illinois

Biology, Chemistry

Everything was "all george" to Rita—an expression which other seniors were quick to pick up. Freshmen knew Rita as a friendly Tuckpointer but every Clarkite remembers her as the enthusiastic NFCCS senior delegate. A biology major, Rita will study physical therapy next fall at the School of Medicine at Northwestern University.

Mary Janaan Noonan

Magna Cum Laude

Dubuque, Iowa

Mathematics, Science

Versatility is Janaan's middle name, for she majored in mathematics, minored in science, and served as president of the Press Club for two years. Blessed with an unusual baptismal name Janaan became "Noonie" to her classmates early in her college career. Her grades always soared high and so did her tennis balls, for she managed to win the championship trophy three years in a row.

Mary Frances O'Byrne

Chicago, Illinois

Chemistry, Journalism

"One of the roving kind," MFOB divided her four years at Clarke among the chem lab, the Courier office, and Diamond's Grille. Serving as editor-in-chief of the Courier she was known for her prize-winning editorials. Mary Fran, however, will turn in her blue pencil in order to concentrate on her test tubes when she takes a laboratory position in Chicago next year.

The Immaculata High School. Editor-in-chief of the Courier 4, managing editor 3, staff 1-4; Press Club 1-4; CCP 1-4; WAA 1-4; Colonel Wallace A. Mead Editorial Award 3, 4; Dean's list, 11 times.

Patricia Mary O'Malley

Chicago, Illinois Foods and Nutrition, Science

Pat is a Home Economics major with a distinct dramatic flair. She can describe the tragedy of a fallen cake or burnt steak with the pathos of Helen Hayes. Her vivid descriptions and her hearty enthusiasm always make a good story just a little bit better. She's off to California next fall to take her internship in dietetics.

Convent of the Sacred Heart. Home Economics Club 2-4, treasurer 3; Sodality 1-4; CCP 1-4, secretary 4; WAA 1, 4; Glee Club 1, 2, 4; Schola 1, 3, 4; Radio Club 2, 4; Water Ballet 1-4.

Mary Rose Purtell

Stacyville, Iowa Foods and Nutrition, Science

Mary Rose proved herself an able and courteous hostess as president of the Home Economics Club. The children's Christmas party which the club sponsored ran smoothly because of her excellent planning. After her sophomore year Mary Rose took time out to teach for a year before completing her studies. She plans to continue her work in dietetics as an intern at the Veterans Administration Hospital at Staten Island, New York.

Visitation High School. Home Economics Club 1-4, president 4; IFTA 2, 4, president 3; Sodality 3, 4; WAA 1; Courier 2.

Ann O'Hagan Reilly

Dubuque, Iowa
Sociology, Elementary Education

We all knew Ann was Irish but we really couldn't account for her brogue until we found out that her middle name was O'Hagan. Never worried and never in a hurry, Ann is sure to be one of the most popular school teachers in Dubuque's primary grades next year. Ann has a hard time deciding which she enjoyed more—college or her summer vacations on Lake Erie.

St. Columbkille High School. Social Science Club 1-4; WAA 1, 2; Sodality 1-4; IFTA 3, 4; Tuckpointer 2-4.

Rose Marie Schnepf

Homewood, Illinois

Art, Elementary Education

The other half of the Danisch-Schnepf duo, Rosie, like Annie, plans to teach next year. With her wit and sense of humor she's certain to make a hit with her pupils. Rosie's decorations for the Senior Prom gave ample testimony that she chose the right major in college.

Loretto Academy. Art Club 1-4; Sodality 1-4; IFTA 3, 4; Labarum 3.

Joan Therese Schuster

Dubuque, Iowa

One of the four Schuster girls, Joan will follow Mary Virginia with her diploma and she'll lead the way for Jeanette and Imelda. Joan has been a hard working member of the Spires staff for the past two years. An elementary education minor, she plans on teaching in Dubuque next fall.

Joanne Claire Simpson

Chicago, Illinois

Biology, Chemistry

Writing letters to one of Uncle Sam's boys took care of a good deal of spare time for Joanne this past year. But it also accounted for the avidity with which she swung the combination on her postoffice box. Joanne was an enthusiastic member of the senior class, whether she was doing her secretarial job, playing on the basketball team, or modeling in the style show. A native Chicagoan, she's returning home for her lab technician internship.

Mercy High School. Class secretary 4; Biology Forum 2-4; Sodality 1-4; WAA 1-4; Glee Club 1, 2; Tuckpointer 4; Volleyball 3, 4, Champion team 3; Basketball 3, 4, All-Star team 4; Social Science Club 4; May Queen 3.

Phyllis JoAnn Smythe

Casper, Wyoming

Music, Elementary Education

Phyl's outstanding musical talent merited for her membership in Delta Mu Theta, national music honor society, as well as the acclaim of her fellow students. But music wasn't her only interest. Phyl liked nothing better than to spin tales of the wild, wild west for gullible midwesterners. Much as she regrets leaving "the promised land" of Wyoming, she plans to teach music in Chicago next year.

St. Agnes Academy, Alliance, Nebraska. Cecilian Circle 1-4, vice-president 4; Schola 4; Tuckpointer 4; Glee Club 3, 4; Delta Mu Theta music honor society.

Helen Mae Tegeler

Dubuque, Iowa Music, Elementary Education

Helen's soprano voice will be missed at Loras as well as at Clarke since she has been a featured soloist with the Loras College Band for the past two years. An active music major she merited membership in Delta Mu Theta. After weeks of preparation for her recital and the excitement of graduation Helen settled down to planning her wedding for June 21st.

Joan Grace Trexler

Dubuque, Iowa Sociology, Library Science

With the proper ring on the proper finger Joan's future is pretty well mapped out—that is, unless the Navy interferes. In the meantime she's having a hard time deciding whether social work or library science will claim her talents. A golf enthusiast, Joan has reached the finals in two Clarke tournaments.

Academy of the Visitation. Social Science Club 1-4, sociology representative 4; Sodality 1, 2; CCP 1, 2, 4; Radio Club 1; Press Club 1; Tuckpointer 4; Spires 3, 4; Water Ballet 4.

Catherine Nan-Yun Tsou

Shanghai, China
Chemistry, Biology, Mathematics

China's modern day Confucius—or better yet, her Bob Hope—has added much to Clarke these past four years. Catherine's standard greeting, "Would you like to hear a joke?" will be remembered much longer than the joke. Whether she's concocting a chemistry experiment, solving a calculus problem, brewing tea, or writing a poem, you can be sure it will be done well. China's "ambassador" to Dubuque is now Clarke's pride and joy.

Mary Farnham High School. Press Club 3, 4, vice-president 4; Labarum 1-4; Sodality 3, 4; WAA 4; Cecilian Circle 2, 4.

Rosemarie Van Dyck

Des Moines, Iowa

Spanish, French

The three s's—sports, Spanish, and sleep—were the main features of Van's life at Clarke. As WAA president she furnished comfort for basketball and volleyball fans through the installation of bleachers. It's "Westward Ho" for Rosemarie this summer as she plans a trip to California where she should find opportunity to use her Spanish.

Jeanette Feller Van Winkle

Dubuque, Iowa Art, Elementary Education

Students and Sisters at St. Anthony's elementary school were always eager to have Jeanette give an art lesson when she was doing her student teaching. Jeanette never failed to give some new and interesting artistic suggestion. The Dubuque public school children will get a like opportunity when she begins teaching in the fall.

St. Joseph Academy. Art Club 1-4; Sodality 1-4; WAA 1, 2; Dean's list, 5 times.

Mary Virginia Vaughn

Temple, Texas Biology, Chemistry

A Texan in spirit, Mary Virginia will become a real one next fall when she starts her lab technician internship at Temple. Margaret Mary Ward

Oak Park, Illinois

English, Education

During the past year Peg was kept busy as president of IFTA and as a self-appointed campaign manager for Senator Taft. She put her English major and subtle Irish wit to good use as author of the script for the senior class program. With coffee as her staff of life, she was one of Diamond's best customers.

The Immaculata High School. IFTA 3, 4, president 4; CCP 1-4; Press Club 2-4; Courier 2-4; Labarum 2-4; WAA 1-4; Sodality 1-4.

Mary Lucilla Weller

Mount Morris, Illinois

Biology, Chemistry

Mary has always been just Mamie to her classmates since her freshman days at Maryhall. A jack of all trades, Mary was just as good at sawing props for a dance as cutting up a cat in the biology lab. In the fall her collegiate tables will be turned when she teaches biology to the nurses at St. Francis Hospital, Freeport, Illinois.

Mount Morris Community High School. Biology Forum 3, 4, president 4; Sodality 1-4; Spires 3; Cecilian Circle 3; WAA 2-4; Volleyball 2-4; Basketball 3; WAA Awards 2, 3, 4.

Mary Frances Wrenn
